Upon sending back the signed registration form and receiving the confirmation, the contract is considered as closed between the parties. With the signature below you accept the general participation conditions listed on the back page.

Date: _____ Company signature: _____

1. Registration - Acceptance - Contract

1.1. Contracting parties:

- On the one part: the National Electronics Society of Hungary (NESH) and its strategic partner OC BAU Ltd. (headquarters: H-1106 Budapest, Bogáncsvirág u. 5-7., from here on: OC BAU) charged with organization,
- On the other part: the exhibitor or sponsor signing the registration form with company signature and sending it back (herein after: Partner).

1.2. Registration and establishment of contract: registration is completed by sending back the filled-out registration form to the organizer by accepting the participation conditions described herein. Upon sending back the signed registration form to OC BAU and receiving the confirmation, the contract is considered as closed between the parties.

1.3. Any conditions and provisions included by the Partner on the registration form are considered invalid. For every additional agreement, including participation conditions, services, sponsor packages and technical solutions different from the default, require the prior written consent of OC BAU is necessary.

1.4. OC BAU has the right to cancel the contract if the Partner's products and services are deemed inappropriate for the event's scope.

1.5. Co-exhibitor: Partner has the right to share their booth with another company or companies at will, who are considered to be partner exhibitors in this case. Co-exhibitors need to be listed on the first page of the registration form. Every condition equally applies to the co-exhibitors as well, including payment items and terms, restriction of participation conditions listed in Section 1.4 etc. OC BAU is contracted directly with Partner. The event floor area shared between the Partner and its co-exhibitor(s) are considered as one whole unit, meaning that it will be provided only for the prevailing contracting partner of OC BAU Represented company: Partner and its co-exhibitor(s) have the right to include the represented companies on the booth area. Represented companies don't have access to their own separate floor area. The rates of co-exhibitor(s) and represented companies are to be paid by the contracting party (Partner), who is also responsible for their actions throughout the event against OC BAU.

1.6. The content of sponsor-packages was published in the offering information material sent to the sponsor in advance. The parties can modify the content of the sponsor-packages by common assent. NESH and OC Bau Ltd. are jointly responsible for the realization of the services including in sponsor packages and the separately agreed special services, if existing.

2. Costs of participation and due dates

2.1. Upon receiving the confirmed registration, Partner also receives a proforma invoice containing the registration fee, which is 50% of the base tariff. The prepayment invoice will be issued after completing the prepayment. The second part of the payment, further 40%, is due till 31th of January 2019. The remaining part of the base tariff and the costs of any additional services will become due two weeks before the official opening of the event, or latest at the beginning of building up the exhibition area. The final invoice will be issued after completing the payments and will be sent after the event. In case of being behind with any payment, the exhibition area cannot be occupied and the construction cannot be started. If the Partner orders any kind of service after starting the booth construction, additional invoice will be issued that has to be settled latest until closing of the event.

2.2. If any of the payments are not completed until the due date on the invoices, OC BAU has the right to remain in possession of the floor area or cancel the contract.

2.3. Failing to meet the due dates on the invoices Partner is obliged to pay the interest on overdue payments to OC BAU as per the Civil Code.

3. Booth assignment, occupation

3.1. After the agreement procedure with NESH, the booth assignment is the authority of OC BAU. The considerations for assignment are the professional aspects, sponsorship status, scale, and the order of application.

3.2. Exhibitor has the right to occupy the assigned booth area and start the booth construction once every due invoice has been completely paid until the start of construction.

3.3. Any booth area or exhibition space that has not been occupied until the day before the start of the exhibition, can be assigned to other exhibitors. In this case Partner has no right for any reimbursement or compensation whatsoever.

4. Insurance and liabilities

4.1. It is the duty of Partner or their agent to make sure the exhibition objects and every other asset are properly secured for every risk during delivery, assembly/disassembly, damages etc.

4.2. From the viewpoint of liability insurance contained by the registration fee, an insurance event is an incidence of loss that has been caused by the Partner to any third party without valid contract or contracting party outside of contract scope, for the reimbursement of which the insured party has a liability. The upper limit of compensation is 5,000,000 HUF/incidence of loss, or 10,000,000 HUF/insurance period for the whole event.

4.3. The range of liabilities don't include the indirect losses and missed profits.

4.4. OCBAU does not take any responsibility for cancellation of the Event, relocation, change of date, if the underlying reason is considered to be force majeure, including catastrophes, environmental disasters, war events, uprising, terrorism acts, worker strikes, absence of energy etc.

5. Cancelling the participation

Penalty-free cancellation of participation or decreasing the rented floor area is only possible till the registration/ application deadline, December 15, 2018. If cancellation occurs after this deadline, but before February 28, 2019, the penalty amount is 50%, increasing to 100% anytime after. The basis of penalty is the registration fee and rental fee corresponding to the reserved floor area or the sponsorship fee.

6. Warranties

For any accidental defects of either the booth or the exhibition area, complaints have to be reported immediately after occupying the assigned space to OC BAU in order to allow OC BAU to compensate for the rightful or acknowledged charges. Any other complaints arriving later are ignored and cannot serve as rightful demands against OC BAU in any case.

7. Court functions

For every other issue concerning the Event and not discussed in the general contracting and participation terms, the Civil Code is in effect. Contracting parties declare to do their best to reach an agreement without lawsuits, but in any case that this proves to be inefficient, the Central Regional Court of Buda is recognized as qualified authority in terms of any misunderstandings, violation, expiration, validity and definition regarding the underlying contract between the parties.
